Try sailing at the Royal St
George Yacht Club, one of Ireland's leading sailing clubs

Sailing is a healthy leisure activity, an active sport, and an adventurous way to explore Ireland's seas, lakes and rivers.

- It is a great way to meet new friends
- Sailing can be competitive, great exercise... or really relaxing!
- You can be what you want to be: crew, skipper, organiser, dinghy-sailor, explorer or even an ocean racer!
- Sailing is for all – and all the family. You can start at any age: it's a sport for life
- Get started now at the Royal St. George Yacht Club
- We provide - BOATS / TUITION / GEAR / FUN

Why not experience sailing at the Royal St George ?

We have put together a number of programmes to introduce you to sailing and to the club.

1. uSail Start Sailing

2. uSail Racing

3. uSail Seamanship

1. uSail Start Sailing

- uSail training courses are for adults of all ages
- Courses will be run throughout the season enabling you to feel the 'buzz' of both sailing and the club itself
- Each course will be short, intensive and sociable
- This course consists of five training sessions over 2-3 weeks
- Sessions are usually held on week-nights after work, or over a number of weekends
- The RStGYC is an Irish Sailing approved Training Centre
- Quality instruction & tuition, with individual feedback
- Most training is on 1720 keelboats (which don't capsize).
- Also available are Squibs, Cruisers, and Power-boats
- Cost includes apres-sailing meal/bbq after each session

2. uSail Racing

- Take your sailing to the next level
- For those who have already completed the uSail Start Sailing course
- Experience the excitement and thrills of Dublin Bay Sailing Club races

3. uSail Seamanship

- Leaving / picking up a mooring
- Coming alongside
- Anchoring
- Man overboard
- Sail trim
- Weather

Still Not Sure?

4. uSail Try Sailing

- A single session for total novices
